

Euromoney Nigeria Finance & Investment Conference
Finding Liquidity in a Post Liquid World
29-30 September 2009, Eko Hotel & Suites, Lagos, Nigeria

Tuesday 29 September

08.00-09.00	Registration and Coffee
	OPENING SESSION Mazonia and Abora Suite
09.00-09.10	Euromoney Conferences Welcome: Christopher Garnett, Director, Euromoney Conferences
09.10-09.30	Opening Address: Sanusi Lamido Sanusi , Governor, Central Bank of Nigeria Represented by Tunde Lemo , Deputy Governor – Operations, Central Bank of Nigeria
09.30-09.50	Keynote Address: Babatunde Raji Fashola, Executive Governor, Lagos State Represented by Princess Adenrele Adeniran Ogunsanya, Secretary to the State Government, Lagos State
09.50-10.50	Panel I: Nigeria 2020: Building Africa's Economic Giant Business leaders and market participants comment on Nigeria's progress on the road to G20 membership. What's the next step? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ What lessons have been learnt from other successfully planned economies? ▪ How realistic are the state and government development plans? ▪ How exposed is Nigeria to the global economic cycle? ▪ How balanced is the Nigerian economy? ▪ The pull of Africa: China, India, Russia are all here – what's the attraction? ▪ Human capital development: Educating the workforce of the future ▪ What is the impact of nationalization of western financial institutions on economic planning? ▪ How exposed is Nigeria to the growth of other African countries? Moderator: Christopher Garnett , Director, Euromoney Conferences Speakers: Ben Akabueze , Honourable Commissioner for Economic Planning & Budget, Lagos State Government Solomon Asamoah , Deputy CEO and Chief Investment Officer, Africa Finance Corporation Zin Bekkali , Chief Executive Officer, Silk Invest Francis Odey Ntamu , Private Sector Expert, African Development Bank Bismarck Rewane , Managing Director, Financial Derivatives Company
10.50-11.15	Coffee Break Ebony Suite, Main Foyer and Iroko Suite
11.15-12.00	Workshop A Hosted by DEAP Capital Mazonia and Abora Suite Using Private Equity & Venture Capital Investments to Deepen the Nigerian Capital Market: An Investors Perspective Speaker: Emmanuel Ugboh , Chief Executive Officer, Deap Capital Panellists: Biodun Adedipe , Managing Consultant, B Adedipe & Associates Femi Ekundayo , Managing Consultant, Resort Consult Anthony Eze , Chief Executive Officer, DVCF Oil & Gas David Ogwu , Chairman, Board of Trustees, Samaritan Grace

Euromoney Nigeria Finance & Investment Conference
Finding Liquidity in a Post Liquid World
29-30 September 2009, Eko Hotel & Suites, Lagos, Nigeria

Tuesday 29 September

12.05-12.55	Panel II: Risk & Reward: Building a Resilient, Transparent Banking Sector Mazonia and Abora Suite
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Financial reputation: risk assessment and outlook for the Nigerian banking sector ▪ The institution building agenda: ensuring a robust regulatory regime ▪ Market harnessing: what is being done to reduce excess margin lending? ▪ What will the impact be of the policy change permitting foreign bank takeovers? ▪ Financial sector deepening: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -The new Nigerian consumer - Microfinance and SME lending - Banking the unbanked through telecommunications - Mortgage market development: retail to wholesale - Consumer credit
	Moderator: Simon Brady , Managing Director, Euromoney Speakers: Charles Ojo , Managing Director, Spring Bank Ronke Onadeko-Osayande , Country Representative, BNP Paribas Momohjimoh Umar , General Manager, Special Assets, Intercontinental Bank Florian Witt , Senior Representative and Director in Nigeria, Commerzbank
12.55-14.00	Lunch Ebony Suite, Main Foyer and Iroko Suite
14.00-14.45	Workshop B Hosted by Bank PHB Mazonia and Abora Suite	Workshop C Hosted by Oando PLC Food of Sun
	Structuring and Financing Infrastructure Activities in Nigeria: A Focus on Power Speaker: Joseph Makoju , Chief Operating Officer, Dangote Cement Panellists: Mallam Isa Yuguda , Executive Governor, Bauchi State Okey Oramah , Executive Vice President, African Export-Import Bank Pat Utomi , Vice Chairman, Bank PHB	Unusual Challenges, Ingenious Solutions: Building an Energy Conglomerate in Sub-Saharan Africa Speaker: Wale Tinubu , Group Chief Executive, Oando PLC Panellists: Jonathan Long , Chairman, FCMB Rizvi Kaleem , Executive Director, Citigroup Saif Malik , Head, Origination and Client Coverage, Standard Chartered Bank Chuka Eseka , Managing Director, Vetiva Capital Management Limited
14.45-15.35	Panel III: The Naira: A New African Reserve Currency? Mazonia and Abora Suite
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ What is the opportunity for an African reserve currency? ▪ The calm after the storm: can currency stability be maintained? ▪ A review of exchange rate & monetary policy ▪ The challenges and benefits of a petro-economy ▪ The Naira as a currency for international trade finance ▪ Local currency bonds: the Naira as a capital raising tool
	Moderator: Nicholas Tattersall , Chief Correspondent, Nigeria, Thomson Reuters Speakers: Hamda Ambah , General Manager, First Securities Discount House Rotimi Oyekan , Honourable Commissioner for Finance, Lagos State Government Chris Vermont , Head of Debt Capital Markets, Frontier Markets Fund Managers Roger Woodbridge , Head of Global Markets, Standard Chartered
15.35-16.00	Coffee Break Ebony Suite, Main Foyer and Iroko Suite

Tuesday 29 September

16.00-16.50	Panel IV: Capital Markets: Financing Nigeria's Future Mazonia and Abora Suite <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Finding sources of capital: what new products are in the pipeline? ▪ Building a debt market ▪ Examining the opportunity for a regional financial hub ▪ What progress has been made in deleveraging local investors? ▪ Intra-African infrastructure investment as a solution to the funding gap ▪ Collaborative capitalism: how public and private sector partnership is driving development ▪ Pension funds and insurance: developing stable, long-term sources of domestic capital ▪ Ensuring an adequate regulatory regime ▪ Lessons from other developing markets Moderator: Simon Brady, Managing Director, Euromoney Speakers: Adetokunbo Akindele, Head of Investor Relations Oando PLC Ike Michaels, Managing Director, PML Capital Limited Opuiyo Oforiokuma, Chief Executive Officer, Lekki Concession Company Mishnah Seth, Investment Analyst, Investec Asset Management Emmanuel Ugboh, Chief Executive Officer, Deap Capital
16.50-17.40	Panel V: Foreign Direct Investment: The Investor Experience Mazonia and Abora Suite <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ What makes Nigeria an attractive destination? ▪ How does Nigeria rank in international terms as an investor destination? ▪ Government, regulators and the Foreign Direct Investor ▪ What are the challenges of investing in Nigeria? ▪ What further opportunities are there for international investors? ▪ How can Nigeria improve its competitiveness? ▪ The rule of law and enforceability of contracts ▪ How easy is capital repatriation? ▪ What further reforms are needed? ▪ Securing investments in Nigeria – perceptions and reality Moderator: Dele Babade, Founder & CEO, AfriCapital LLC Speakers: Amichia Biley, Regional Director West Africa, DEG Jonathan Chew, Fund Manager, Imara African Opportunities Fund Barbara James, Founder & Chief Executive, Henshaw Capital Partners Fidelis Omozuapo, Head, West Africa, Aegis Nick Rouse, Managing Director, Frontier Markets Fund Managers Ayo Salami, Chief Investment Officer, Duet Africa
17.40	Close of Day One

Euromoney Nigeria Finance & Investment Conference
Finding Liquidity in a Post Liquid World
29-30 September 2009, Eko Hotel & Suites, Lagos, Nigeria

Wednesday 30 September

09.00-09.30	Registration and Coffee Side Foyer, Ebony Suite, Main Foyer and Iroko Suite
	ALL SESSIONS Mazonia and Apora Suite
09.30-09.35	Euromoney Conferences Welcome: Christopher Garnett , Director, Euromoney Conferences
09.35-09.55	Interview with Alhaji Aliko Dangote, President & Chief Executive, Dangote Group Interviewed by Simon Brady , Managing Director, Euromoney
09.55-10.55	Panel VI: Economic Diversification: the Transition from Oil-Dependency <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Import substitution and the drive for independence from agricultural imports ▪ Human capital: exploring the opportunities for a knowledge economy ▪ Developing a healthy, educated workforce ▪ Meeting the challenges of energy supply to support business growth ▪ Encouraging entrepreneurship ▪ The significance of agribusiness and food security in Nigeria's future ▪ What further steps are required to formalize the economy? ▪ Using petro revenues to diversify the economy ▪ Climate change and Nigeria's economic future Moderator: Simon Hardie, Programme Director, Euromoney Conferences Speakers: Martin Oluba, President & Chief Executive Officer, ValueFronteira Bolarin Omonona, Consultant, Agriculture and Rural Development, World Bank Osaze Osifo, Chief Executive Officer, Travant Capital Partners Franca Ovadje, Senior Lecturer, Lagos Business School Timothy Prewitt, Managing Director, USAID MARKETS
10.55-11.30	Coffee Break Ebony Suite, Main Foyer and Iroko Suite
11.30-12.20	Panel VII: Nigeria's Private Sector: Engine for Growth <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ What are local companies doing and how are they responding to the volatility? ▪ Deleveraging balance sheets: how far is there still to go? ▪ Where will Nigerian companies look now to secure funding? ▪ What demand is there for capital? ▪ How is the government supporting the private sector? What more can be done? ▪ Is the birth of a consumer economy driving financial intermediation and access to capital? ▪ How good is the business environment? ▪ The Nigerian legal system: help or hindrance to the private sector? Moderator: Christopher Garnett, Director, Euromoney Conferences Speakers: Okechukwu Enelamah, Chief Executive Officer, African Capital Alliance Farooq Oreagba, Head of Strategy and New Products, Nigerian Stock Exchange Adedotun Sulaiman, Chairman, Accenture Nigeria Hee Kong Yong, Adviser, Governance & Institutional Development, Commonwealth Secretariat
12.20 -12.30	Closing Address: Christopher Garnett , Director, Euromoney Conferences
12.30	Close of Conference

Euromoney Conferences reserves the right to amend the timings and content of the programme and is not responsible for any cancellations due to unforeseen circumstances.